PARISH NEWSLETTER

24th January 2021

THIRD SUNDAY OF YEAR

Repent, and believe the Good News.

First Reading	Jon 3:1-5.10
Responsorial Psalm	Ps 24:4-9
Second Reading	1 Cor 7:29-31
Gospel	Mk 1:14-20

THIRD SUNDAY OF YEAR: “The time has come” says Jesus. He had already begun the groundwork – baptised by John and enabling him to recognise the arrival of the Lamb of God and also getting to know the core group of his disciples including Andrew and Simon Peter. The arrest of John the Baptist marks a new phase. The time has come to make know the coming of God’s Kingdom and our need to prepare for this by a change of heart and of our way of life. We will only be motivated to change if we really believe that God is near and once we have begun to make that change our openness will make us more ready to recognise the Son of God for who he is. The Church links this to the story of Jonah because Nineveh was the ancient foe of Israel and a symbol of evil. If Nineveh could repent then no one is beyond God’s mercy or the touch of his grace.

PRAYER NEEDS: Please continue to pray for those parishioners who are sick, in hospital or housebound .

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

LORD of the Harvest,
BLESS young people with the gift of courage
to respond to your call.
Open their hearts to great ideals to great things.
INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving - for vocations to blossom in the good soil of faithful people.
INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries and families
With the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of life consecrated to you.
UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament,
so that we may co-operate with you in building
your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace.
Amen.

on the 51st World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Oh Sacrament divine
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment thine
