PARISH NEWSLETTER

10th April 2011

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

I am the resurrection and the life

First Reading: Ezekiel 37, 12-14

Responsorial Psalm PS 129.R.v.7

Second Reading: St Paul 8,8-11

Gospel: Jn 11:1-45

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT: Today begins Passiontide with its increasing emphasis on the cross as the means of our Redemption. During this period the customary veiling of crosses and statues reminds us that without the cross there would be no salvation or access to the heavenly Jerusalem – no saints to help us with their prayers. However, the Triduum Sacrum is a whole unit – Last Supper, Crucifixion & Resurrection – and today's Gospel is the story of the raising of Lazarus. It points to the triumph of the Lord over the powers of death and the promise not of resuscitation in this world but of eternal life. The Third Century Synagogue at Dura-Europus in Syria has this charming illustration of the Valley of Dry Bones from Ezekiel – our First Reading today.

SEDER SUPPER: A last reminder if you wish to take part in this symbolic meal and preparation for Holy Week – Christchurch, Coggeshall, Thursday at 7.00 p.m. Any names to Fr Gordon TODAY.

SERVICE OF RECONCILIATION: Our Lenten Reconciliation Service takes place this Wednesday at Kelvedon 7.30 p.m. Fr Conrad Smith will be helping with Confessions.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE FOR PALM SUNDAY: We will be hosting the monthly service for Kelvedon and Feering next Sunday at 4.00 p.m.

PHONE CALLS TO PRESBYTERY: In my previous parish I was plagued with calls from a deranged man who believes Pope John Paul II used magic to murder his brother and the Church and government are all engaged in a giant conspiracy of silence. I was not the only one so favoured – he also plagues every diocese in the country and the Nuncio! Unfortunately he has now traced my present address and phone number. He is careful to use numbers that cannot be traced to avoid barraging. He rings five or six times a day but gives up after three to six months of not getting an answer. I may have to keep the ansaphone on permanently for the next few weeks so please leave a message, beginning with your number as the machine will cut off after about 30 seconds, and I will get back to you. The Bishops' Conference office tried an injunction but to no avail!

PRAYER NEEDS: Please continue to pray for those parishioners who are sick especially Pam Loweth, Bill Sullivan, Sheila Faulkner, Hanni Kyan, Danny Mullane, Sarah Costello, Dorothy Dodd, Donovan Buahin, Mike Gibson, Elliot Chisholm, Maria Hoeft, Dwight Page, Rebecca Dillon, Brian Harper, Eddie Price, Anne Entwistle, Audrey Holden, Eric Bell, Paul Brittain, Audrey Hopwood, Karen Kelly, Daniel McDermott and any unknown to us. If anybody knows of names to be added to or deleted from the sick list please let Fr Gordon know.

FINANCE: Offertory collection for Sunday 3rd April £778.74.

ANNIVERSARIES: Please remember Hubert Jackson, Ellen Harper, Lena Valley, Gary Fox, Edward Walkley and Tadec Nuromberg, whose anniversaries occur at this time.

YOUR PARK, YOUR NAME: The Catholic community has a great opportunity to take part in naming the new FIVE residential districts of the Olympic Park. The greater the number of specific entries the more likely it is that a name will be chosen. Due to the strong history of Catholicism in the East of London it would be a shame to miss this opportunity to help to shape the future landscape in some way. The competition is free to enter, either online, in writing or by phone, and between one and five names can be entered by each person. More information can be found at www.legacycompany.co.uk/competition/. For those without internet, details are: 'Your Park, Your Place' Naming Competition, Olympic Park Legacy Company, 5th Floor, 29-35 West Ham Lane, London E15 4PH; (E) info@legacycompany.co.uk; (T) 020 3288 1800 (Mon - Fri, 0900 - 1700). VACANCIES WITH BRENTWOOD CATHOLIC YOUTH SERVICE (BCYS)

BCYS Business Manager: The Diocesan Youth Service is looking to appoint an experienced manager with strong financial and business experience to work as part of the BCYS Management team. The role is based at 2 sites (Cathedral House in Brentwood and Walsingham House in Canvey Island) and involves some staff line management. The 16 hour week can be worked very flexibly and we recognise that the salary of £12,000 per annum is not commensurate with the role and responsibility and therefore involves some charitable giving of time.

Administrator based at Walsingham House (Canvey Island): We are looking to appoint a highly organised, highly motivated administrator for 16 hours per week (over 4 days) to manage the day to day administration and finance system at Walsingham House. You would be the first point of contact for schools and parishes making retreat bookings and must therefore have excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Experience of Microsoft Office and Sage would be an advantage for both roles.

For more details please contact Sarah Barber at sarah@bcys.net
Application is by CV to Sarah Barber, Youth Office, Cathedral House, Ingrave Road, Brentwood, Essex CM15 8AT.
Closing date for applications is Friday 6th May, and interviews will take place on Wednesday 18th May 2011.

You will be resident as part of the Walsingham House community, and will be given a volunteer stipend. Please apply by sending your CV to jon@walsinghamhouse.org
