FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: Today is known as 'Good Shepherd Sunday' and is the annual day of prayer for vocations for the priesthood and religious life. The 'Good Shepherd' discourse from St John's Gospel is divided into three sections spread over the three years of the Cycle of Readings. In the first part Jesus begins with a slightly different image. He is the gate of the sheepfold. Fr Thomas Rosica makes the following points: "In today's Gospel (John 1:1-10), Jesus makes references to two types of sheepfolds before he identifies himself as the sheep gate. In the first two verses he describes the kind of "communal sheepfold" that each village would maintain and to which the shepherds might return their flocks each night. The pen was protected by a strong door that could be opened only by the chief shepherd's key. The second type of sheepfold is described in subsequent verses. Such a containment was provided for those nights when the sheep were to be kept in the fields (as on the night of Jesus' birth). Such temporary sheepfolds usually consisted of a circle of rocks, with an opening at one end. The shepherd himself would serve as the gate to such sheepfolds, laying across its entrance to sleep. Whether a sheep tried to leave or a wolf tried to enter, they would have to do so by way of the shepherd himself! The shepherd himself was the door. It is important to remember that Jesus first identifies himself, not as the Good Shepherd, but as the gate for the sheep. In the ancient walls of Jerusalem, there was a gate on the north of the city, by which animals were brought in from the surrounding areas for sacrifice. It was called the sheep gate. Once inside the city and within the temple courts, there was only one door where the sheep went in, and no lamb ever came back out after entering the temple precincts.

They travelled in only one direction, and there they were sacrificed for the sins of human beings. For that first audience who heard Jesus' teaching about sheep, such knowledge added to the shock of his words: "I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. ... I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. He will come in and go out, and find pasture" (John 10:7,9). In the very temple area filled with sheep on their way to slaughter, Jesus declared there was a way out: "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. I am the Good Shepherd" (John 10:11)."

PHONE CALLS: Unfortunately what I foresaw some time ago has come to pass and the gentleman suffering from delusions has been bombarding the presbytery with phone calls over the last few days (12 on Sunday!). You may find the 'ansaphone' left on more or less permanently for the next few weeks. It only allows a short message so please leave your number first and then a message, or try the mobile number provided, and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

CONGRATULATIONS: To Grace Elizabeth May Long baptised at Coggeshall last Saturday.

REPAIR WORK TIPTREE: The work to repair the fire damage at Tiptree should begin shortly and will take several weeks. However, this should not interfere with the use of the building. During the work the Blessed Sacrament will be reserved in the sacristy for reasons of both security and reverence.

ECUMENICAL NEWS: Reverend Leonard Phelps has stepped down from his temporary role as minister at the URC - after four years and is moving to Wales to resume his retirement. We wish him and his wife well. The process of seeking a permanent minister continues. A new rector has been appointed to Tiptree, subject to confirmation, and hopefully will take up her post in September. This means that Reverend Jo Dudley will be moving on to new fields so we thank her for all she has contributed to the life of the Churches and community in Tiptree, especially during the interregnum.

PARISH VISITING: As announced in last week's newsletter, this exciting new initiative started on Monday. The Visiting Team have organised silent Adoration sessions at each of our churches next Sunday evening 22nd May, to give parishioners the opportunity to come together across the parish to pray that God will bless and guide our small visiting group in this new calling and bless those in the Tiptree homes where visits are planned. The Adoration will begin at Tiptree after Sunday Mass and end at 9.00 p.m. Coggeshall will be open at 9.00 p.m. until 10.30 p.m. and Kelvedon from 10.30 p.m. until midnight. Lists are available today at each church for parishioners to plan their attendance at whichever session is most convenient for them. Eucharistic Ministers at each church have agreed to expose and repose the Blessed Sacrament. This method of prayer support has worked well in our parish in recent times and we hope that parishioners will take the opportunity to respond. Any queries can be addressed to Fr Gordon or Tom McNally (01376 570806).
