WELCOME, HOLY FATHER! Today Pope Benedict XVI concludes his visit to our country with the beatification of Cardinal John Henry Newman, and the Pope will celebrate that beatification in Cofton Park in Birmingham – near Rednal where Cardinal Newman was buried and the place where Newman and his community came for rest and recreation in the Lickey Hills. The Holy Father will then make a private visit to the Oratory of St Philip Neri, Edgbaston, Birmingham where he will be the first person to pray at the new shrine for the "Blessed" John Henry Newman as he will be then. Pope Benedict will conclude the day by meeting with the bishops of England, Scotland and Wales in Oscott College before returning to Rome with a private departure from Birmingham Airport. We pray that God will bless him and that many spiritual fruits will result for our country and the Catholic Church over the months ahead.

PRAYER NEEDS: Please continue to pray for those parishioners who are sick especially Danny Mullane, Sarah Costello, Dorothy Dodd, Donovan Buahin, Mike Gibson, Elliot Chisholm, Maria Hoeffft, Dwight Page, Rebecca Dillon, Sophie, Brian Harper, Eddie Price, Anne Entwistle, Audrey Holden, May Brown, Eric Bell, Paul Brittain, Audrey Hopwood, Karen Kelly, Daniel McDermott and any unknown to us. If anybody knows of names to be added to or deleted from the sick list please could you let Fr Gordon know.

ANNIVERSARIES: Please remember John Geddes, Jean Lynch, John Short and Muriel Norton whose anniversaries occur at this time.

MONTHLY ECUMENICAL SERVICE - Kelvedon & Feering: We host this at St Mary Immaculate this afternoon at 4.00 p.m. The service will reflect on Newman and make use of some of his hymns.

MASS VARIATIONS: There will be no Mass this Thursday as I have a meeting in Glasgow.

NEWMAN: One of Newman's best loved hymns is 'Lead, kindly light'. It was written at sea, during a storm off the coast of Italy, but also reflects his uncertainty as to the future and trust that God knows what he is about:

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
lead thou me on;
the night is dark, and I am far from home;
lead thou me on.
Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see
the distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose, and see my path; but now
lead thou me on.
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still will lead me on,
o'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
the night is gone,
and with the morn those angel faces smile,
which I have loved long since, and lost a while.

CURRY EVENING - Friday 22nd October: Our annual curry evening is approaching. Tickets will be available from SUNDAY 3RD OCTOBER. HOME MISSION SUNDAY: Today is Home Mission Sunday which falls within the historic visit of Pope Benedict XVI to the UK, and on the same day that Cardinal Newman will be beatified. The Sunday is dedicated to the spread of the Gospel in England and Wales. The second collection will support the work of Home Mission. Funds raised last year have helped to make possible substantial outreach work in support of the Papal Visit. During the year ahead, the collection will help to build on the fruits of the Pope Benedict's coming. The money raised today will also support the work of the Catholic Enquiry Office as a national point of contact for faith enquirers. See: www.catholicchurch.org.uk and www.thepapalvisit.org.uk

It is anticipated that proceedings will end about 10am, if you wish to stay and chat, there will be a Church Coffee Morning following the meeting. All are welcome – not just men.
